TEAM AND GROUP COACHING

Unconscious Potential Team and Group Coaching can facilitate positive change for your business by:

- Clarifying your team's purpose and strategy, providing a sense of direction that guide the team's actions
- Supporting the team to set specific goals, define an action plan and strategies to ensure the achievement of the goals
- Opening up communication channels within your team, ensuring information and learning is shared
- Creating a culture where staff encourage and support each other, collaborate rather than compete
- Establishing an environment where staff are given the opportunity to perform to their potential on a consistent basis
- Providing accountability and an objective view point for the achievement of the goals
- Developing high performing project teams in a short period so as to allow focus on the required goals and objectives of the project

"The unique team coaching process utilised harnesses the innate skills in each participant ensuring the power of team work is achieved."

Testimonials

“Silvia assisted me to bring a Senior Project Management User Groups understanding of what their responsibilities were by removing the last issues and risks to the group allowing them to work as a team with a single goal. This was completed by way of workshops, presentations and briefings to the team which Silvia ran in an understanding and professional manner.” Senior PMO Consultant - Sydney Water

“As a trainer/facilitator with 30 years experience in the industry, I was very impressed with the professionalism and ability demonstrated by Silvia in the design and delivery of the coaching session she conducted for our students. Her design consultation skills, attention to detail and ability to develop a tailored session for a particular target group and outcome are but a few of her outstanding attributes. I recommend her to any organization.” Career & Transition Support Coordinator - Sutherland BEN
